THE OPPORTUNITY

Türkiye trades at scale, but mostly offline

Cross-border e-commerce exports were about US$5.1bn in 2025¹⁰, roughly 2% of US$273.4bn in goods exports¹. Most B2B deals still run on email, phone calls, fairs and personal networks.

Türkiye already has 634,611 e-commerce businesses¹¹. The digital habit exists; a national B2B trade platform does not.

Today

Scattered directories, email chains, one fair a year

HOW A TENDER WORKS

From tender to delivery in five steps

01

Post

The buyer posts a tender: product, HS code, specification, quantity, destination, preferred packaging and a deadline, for example 72 hours.

02

Match

AI routes it to verified suppliers and to dealmakers with matching buyers or sellers.

03

Bid

Suppliers bid with price, Incoterms, lead time, certificates and a packing list.

04

Award

The buyer compares offers side by side and awards the tender.

05

Deliver

Service providers quote freight, customs and inspection from the packing list and HS codes.

The same flow runs for import, export and domestic trade. A sell tender reverses it: the supplier offers stock and buyers bid.

BUILT ON TRUST

Verified companies, clear rules

Verified members

Trade registry, tax and quality documents are checked before a profile is marked verified.

Privacy by design

Personal data handled under KVKK and GDPR, with published privacy, cookie and retention policies.

Licensed partners

Turki.sh does not hold client funds. Payments, escrow, insurance and finance come from licensed third parties.

Clear terms

Terms of Use, KVKK notice and legal disclaimer, in English and Turkish.

Complete documents

HS / GTIP codes and packing lists travel with every deal, ready for freight and customs.

Human support

Live chat and a team in Istanbul behind every request.
